BARCLAY BUTERA PARK CITY

“NESTLED HIGH IN THE MOUNTAINS OF UTAH, I HAVE HAD THE GREAT FORTUNE TO CALL PARK CITY MY SECOND HOME FOR OVER TWENTY YEARS.

Famed for its world-class ski resorts and hosting of the Sundance Film Festival, this historic mining town boasts a unique blend of old and new. The creative dynamic, which is showcased in the styling of magnificent homes being built, has fostered a new design aesthetic best described as mountain modern.

I love the fusion of mountain and modern styling because it delivers a strong design statement while retaining the casual vibe that conveys a sense of comfort and hospitality. There is an organic authenticity to the look that I have found translates beautifully in any design project where the goal is a laid back approach to luxury living. The creative use of materials, textures and finishes serve to soften the edge of modern styling, which gives this collection its broad appeal.”
